CONTEST

Countering Terrorism

Prevent

Pursue

Protect

Prepare

“Reduce the risk to UK and its interests overseas from international terrorism so that people can go about their daily lives freely and with confidence”

PREVENT

To stop people becoming terrorists or supporting terrorism.

PURSUE

To stop terrorist attacks.

PROTECT

To strengthen our protection against a terrorist attack.

PREPARE

To mitigate the impact of a terrorist attack.

Threat Levels

CRITICAL

- An attack is expected imminently

SEVERE

- An attack is highly likely

SUBSTANTIAL

- An attack is a strong possibility

MODERATE

- An attack is possible but not likely

LOW

- An attack is unlikely

Current Levels

International Terrorism

- CURRENT THREAT - SEVERE

Dissident Irish Republican Terrorism

- CURRENT THREAT - SUBSTANTIAL

Protect

- National Counter Terrorism Security Office, (NaCTSO)
- Centre for the Protection of the National Infrastructure, (CPNI)
- Work closely with MI5
- Counter Terrorism Security Advisors

CTSA Core Roles

1. Protection of Crowded Places.
2. Protection of Hazardous Sites and Substances.
3. Protection of the National Infrastructure.
4. Personal Security.

Current International Terrorism Methodology

- Use of bladed or blunt force weapons, or using vehicles as a weapon
- Targeting of crowded places with no warning
- A number of attacks and disruptions in mainland Europe have featured firearms
- Hostile Reconnaissance conducted prior to attack

Emerging Threats

- Lone Actors & spontaneous volatile extremists
- Complex attack plots featuring organised networks
e.g. Paris, Brussels
- Diverse attack threat ranging from knives, to firearms,
to explosives
- Ongoing concerns over targeting of police, military and the Jewish community
- Recent attacks show intent to maximise casualties in crowded places including the night-time economy

Crowded places
