

Who are BigChangeMCR?

Tommy O'Donnell
Co-Chair

Tommy brings a wealth of personal and professional experience of rough sleeping and homelessness. Tommy has dedicated his time to developing the systems and administration since taking the Chair in late 2019.

Neil Cornthwaite
Co-Chair

Neil is the Partnership Manager at Barnabus, a homelessness charity based in the city centre. Neil has been a part of the Barnabus team for 5 years and has previously volunteered running the Beacon drop-in centre. He now develops partnerships across the city.

Gabriel Erinle

Gabriel Erinle is the ALL+ and Allied London Estates Director and has 15 years' experience in property management. He is responsible for the estates of Spinningfields, London Road Fire Station and the £1bn new development St John's Quarter. Gabriel is on the CityCo and The Manchester Homelessness Partnership boards.

Jane Davies

Jane Davies is the Strategic Commissioning Manager within the Homelessness Directorate of Manchester City Council. She is a keen supporter of the work of BigChangeMCR and The Manchester Homelessness Partnership.

Who are BigChangeMCR?

Mark Jepson

Mark has supported the work of BigChangeMCR through his work at The Manchester Homelessness Partnership and Street Support, the online platform for homeless support. Mark joined the BigChangeMCR panel in late 2020 with the support of his employer, Change Grow Live.

Stephanie Moore

Steph founded RoTC with Becky Elliott in 2017, turning her voluntary work into an established charity. RoTC do outreach in a reactive way, helping people into accommodation and off the streets in a highly personal and targeted way.

Alex King

Alex is the Partnership Director for CityCo, The City Centre Management Company. Alex works with city centre businesses who often need support to help rough sleepers they see around the city centre. BigChangeMCR helps businesses understand how to help and fundraise in a productive way.

James Charnock

James Charnock is the Sales and Marketing Officer for Manchester Metropolitan University Conference and Events Team. Over the last four years, the team have been donating £1 from each day delegate rate they receive to BigChangeMCR. James is passionate about Manchester and supporting our residents.
